The 13th Representative District embraces the islands of Lanai, Molokai, Kahoolawe, East Maui and Kalaupapa. It is known collectively as Maui Nui A Kama, the greater islands of Chief Kamalalawalu. Each of these places is special and unique. To represent them is to understand their true sense of place.

Lanai is the place of my birth, where I have lived a ranching and plantation lifestyle. Lanai is where families care for and support one another. Molokai is an island of steadfast determination. Molokai is where community pulls together for a common purpose; people are passionate in their love for the land. Kahoolawe is a place that puts us in touch with our deep cultural roots, tests our character through adversity, and challenges our commitment to seek what is righteous and responsible. Truly heavenly is East Maui, a stronghold of natural beauty and cultural diversity that stimulates the senses and the imagination. Kalaupapa is scarred beyond our ability to comprehend. It is a place where faith, hope and love emanate from her humble people.

The ocean waters between our islands are what connect us; they are what we share as common pathways to each other. Most importantly, we are joined as the people of Maui Nui A Kama: These are our islands, our people, and our home. Together we can accomplish miracles.

The 13th District is more than an apportioned boundary; it's my home, it is where I work and serve the people of Lanai, Molokai, Kahoolawe, East Maui and Kalaupapa.
